RE: Financial Support Approved

Recently, our Missionary Support Team recognized our church's need to partner with you both with prayer and with funds. We are excited to let you know that we will be beginning financial support with you in the very near future.

We look forward to working with you and partnering with you in our efforts toward world-evangelism!

Below, we want to provide you with additional information about us, and we would also like to receive some additional information from you.

- We will be financially supporting you monthly in the following amount:
- We will be financially supporting you with a one-time gift in the amount of:

Support Dates

We will begin financial support on the following date:

Financial Support will terminate in the following manner: [HBC Staff, please select one.]

- One year from the date of first financial support
- Two years from the date of first financial support
- We anticipate your financial support to be provided on a semi-indefinite basis, barring any unforeseen changes in our church or in your ministry.

Regular support checks are mailed on the 15th of each month.

Communication

Communication. Hope Baptist Church expects to receive at least four communications from our supported missionaries each year.

Hope Baptist Church desires our missionaries to attempt to schedule to be with us during one church service at some point during each five-year period. A video presence through Skype, or similar means, is more than acceptable.

Newsletters. We would appreciate it if you were to add the email addresses below to your email update list. We prefer emailed newsletters. If you must send a printed newsletter or other physical items, please mail to PO Box 2481, Loveland, CO 80539

[HBC Staff, please provide a personalized email address below for this missionary so that all correspondence is sent directly to this missionaries folder in our church files.]

Expectations

Discontinued Support. Financial support from Hope Baptist Church may be discontinued for certain reasons, such as changing fields of service, changing sending agencies, deviating from the doctrinal statement of Hope Baptist Church, immoral situations, change in financial need, lack of communication, or other circumstances as determined by the leadership of Hope Baptist Church. When possible, we will seek to maintain a foreign missionary's financial support until they are able to return home in order to raise additional support.

Renewing Support. It is possible that in the event your financial support expires as noted above, you may contact us to investigate the potential for continued support. Making this contact requesting an extensions of financial support is your responsibility. Please do not make this inquiry any sooner than three months before the scheduled discontinuation of your financial support. Our decision will be based upon your financial need, your overall effectiveness on the field, and any other factor originally used to determine our commitment of financial partnership.
